What is this form for?

This form is used to activate, manage, and review a period of Progress Support. Progress Support is designed to provide specifically targeted and structured support to a candidate who is experiencing progress delays in their HDR candidature. The support should be designed to realign progress with agreed goals and timelines.

What should I know before I complete this form?

- The Candidate and their Advisors should refer to the HDR Progress Support Procedure and the Progress Support Workflow in preparing and submitting this form.
- This form includes three sections:
 - Activation of Progress Support
 - Development of the Progress Management Plan ('the Plan')
 - Review of the period of Progress Support
- Progress Support should be undertaken for periods of up to three months with a maximum of two periods (aggregated) during candidature.
- Failure to fulfil the requirements of the Plan may result in the candidate being placed Under Review.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Progress Support may be initiated by the candidate, a member of the advisory panel, an ADRE, or the GRS at any time after enrolment and prior to conferral.
- Other relevant others, e.g. external advisor mentors and/or members of the GRS may be asked to provide advice and support to candidates, advisors and ADREs throughout the process.
- PART A: Activation of Progress Support is approved by the relevant ADREs (or nominee).
- PART B: The Progress Management Plan ('the Plan') must be prepared by the Candidate and their Advisors, agreed and signed within 15 working days of activation of Progress Support.
- PART C: Review and Outcome for each period of Progress Support is approved by the ADRE (or nominee).
- College ASOs (or equivalent) are responsible to ensure that the Progress Support Form is lodged with the GRS for noting at the conclusion of the period of progress Support.
