To continue receiving payments each semester, the following Continuing Eligibility criteria must be met:

- Be enrolled full time;
- Pass all subjects each Semester (GPA 4.0) and above; and
- Complete and return the continuing eligibility form by the advised deadline.

Conditions of the Scholarship?

Recipients of the award must meet the following conditions:

- Have not previously received a Commonwealth Scholarship under the Commonwealth Scholarship Programme from any institution.
- Have not already completed a Bachelor degree (unless applying as an honours or post-graduate and have not previously received a Commonwealth Scholarship).
- Have not received a Student Start-up Loan, a Student Start-up Scholarship or a Relocation Scholarship or the Residential Costs option of ABSTUDY from Centrelink.
- If a Student Start-up loan or Relocation Scholarship from Centrelink has been paid then this must be paid back to Centrelink.
- Deferring study at any time during the course with result in the scholarship being terminated.
- If one or more of the continuing eligibility criteria are not met, the scholarship will be terminated.
- Failure to complete and return the continuing eligibility form by the advised deadline will result in the scholarship being terminated.

- Where a scholarship is terminated or a recipient becomes ineligible, JCU will recover any outstanding funding from the recipient.
- JCU will determine if the student has legitimate and genuine reason/s as to why their Indigenous scholarship is terminated (e.g. family responsibilities, illness or bereavement). Under such circumstances, the JCU will determine if a student's reasons are legitimate and genuine and if so, may waive or reduce the amount to be repaid by the student.
- A review of circumstances can be if I do not meet the continuing eligibility criteria
- Where an Indigenous student who is in receipt of a scholarship chooses to transfer to another eligible provider, the student must return all outstanding funding to JCU.
- If an Indigenous student chooses to change their course of study, or transfer to another eligible provider, it will be at the discretion of the JCU as to whether they provide scholarship support to that student and the terms of that support.

Termination of a Commonwealth Scholarship

Scholarships will be terminated by the University for any of the following reasons:

- the student has ceased to meet any of the eligibility criteria.
- the maximum scholarship entitlement period has been reached.
- the student has failed to meet the continuing eligibility criteria and they are suspended or excluded from their course of study under the provisions of the Academic Progression Policy.
- the student has committed serious misconduct while studying at the University.
- the student is found to have provided false or misleading information in their original scholarship application or at any other time the student was requested to confirm their eligibility.
