

QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE - JAMES COOK UNIVERSITY HONORARY AWARDS

This document should be read in conjunction with the Honorary Awards Requirements Procedure

Award and Abbreviation	Honorary Doctor of the University HonDUniv	Honorary Doctorate honoris causa (Doctor of:) Commerce (HonDCom) honoris causa Economics (HonDEc) honoris causa Educational Studies (HonDEd) honoris causa Engineering (HonDEng) honoris causa Laws (HonLLD) honoris causa Letters (HonDLitt) honoris causa Medicine (HonDMD) honoris causa Science (HonDSc) honoris causa	Honorary Doctorate (Doctor of:) Commerce (HonDCom) Economics (HonDEc) Educational Studies (HonDEd) Engineering (HonDEng) Laws (HonLLD) Letters (HonDLitt) Medicine (HonDMD) Science (HonDSc)	Fellow of the University Fellow JCU
Criteria for the award	The award of Honorary Doctor of the University will generally be conferred upon a person who has had a strong association with the University and/or whose eminent achievement is not based on a particular discipline or field of study, but rather through service to the university, or wider society through business or public service. Factors to be taken into consideration for the Award of an Honorary Doctor of the University: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• service that an individual has rendered to the University which is of an exceptional or exemplary nature which has significantly contributed toward the advancement of the University's well-being or reputation;</li> <li>• the length of time the nominee has been involved with, contributed to, or employed by, the University in a senior capacity; and</li> <li>• have upheld the principles and values of professional behaviour outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.</li> </ul> It is acknowledged that such service may be rendered either as a past senior member of staff, past member of Council, or by a member of the community associated with the University. A further consideration would be the length of time the nominee has been involved with, contributed to or employed by the University in a senior capacity.	The award of a degree honoris causa shall be in recognition of a distinguished career involving exceptional achievement and academic eminence, of a standard commensurate with that required for a higher doctorate of the University. Factors to be taken into consideration for the award of a degree honoris causa: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• exceptional achievement and academic eminence in a field of study or discipline offered by the University;</li> <li>• as well as recognizing normally either outstanding service which an individual has rendered to the University beyond the level customarily expected in the execution of the person's duties; or</li> <li>• exceptional contributions to the advancement of human well-being; and</li> <li>• have upheld the principles and values of professional behaviour outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.</li> </ul>	The University may award an Honorary Doctorate of Letters, or a discipline based honorary doctorate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An Honorary Doctorate of Letters will generally be conferred upon a person who has made an eminent contribution in a field or discipline for which JCU does not have a named degree.</li> <li>• An Honorary Doctorate in a named discipline will generally be conferred upon a person who has made an eminent contribution in a field or discipline for which JCU has a named degree.</li> </ul> Factors to be taken into consideration for the award of an honorary Doctorate include one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• outstanding service or distinguished public contribution to the northern Queensland and/or Singaporean communities;</li> <li>• exceptional service which an individual has rendered to the University, comprising either academic excellence, distinguished creative achievement or the exercise of outstanding leadership; and</li> <li>• exceptional contributions beyond the expectations of the nominee's particular field of endeavour, which have influenced the thinking or general well-being of humanity.</li> </ul>	The award of Fellow of the University will generally be conferred upon a person who has made a distinguished contribution to the University or to wider society, through public service or academic achievement. Factors to be taken into consideration for the Award of a Fellow of the University include one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• significant service to the Northern Queensland and Singaporean communities;</li> <li>• significant service which an individual has rendered to the University;</li> <li>• significant contributions to the advancement of human well-being; and</li> <li>• have upheld the principles and values of professional behaviour outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.</li> </ul> Other factors that may be taken into account: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• significant support for the improvement of the University;</li> <li>• major contributions toward activities resulting in the significant development or promotion of the University.</li> </ul>
Testamur	The conferral of an Honorary Award shall be evidenced by a Testamur issued under the Seal of the University.
Academic Dress	Bonnet - Tudor bonnet of royal blue velvet with gold cord around crown with two small gold tassels. Gown - Royal blue Cambridge-style Doctor of Philosophy with facings and linings in gold satin. Royal Blue Oxford-style hood fully lined in gold satin.	Bonnet - Tudor bonnet of royal blue velvet with gold cord around crown with two small gold tassels. Gown - Royal blue Cambridge-style Doctor of Philosophy with facings and linings in blue satin with a gold edging stripe in satin. Royal Blue Oxford-style hood fully lined in blue satin with a gold edging stripe in satin.	Bonnet - Tudor bonnet of royal blue velvet with gold cord around crown with two small gold tassels. Gown - Royal blue Cambridge-style Doctor of Philosophy with facings and linings in blue satin. Royal Blue Oxford-style hood fully lined in blue satin.	Bonnet - Royal blue trencher with a royal blue tassel. Gown - Royal blue Cambridge-Style Doctor of Philosophy with facings in blue satin (sleeves not lined). Blue satin-lined hood in royal blue (reverse of the Honorary Doctorate).
Entitlements	The bestowal of any Honorary Award of the University entitles the recipient to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the receipt of reasonable travel-related expenses to attend the Graduation Ceremony, such expenses to be borne by 'University Commitments Account – Overheads – Council Expenses';</li> <li>• to use the title 'Doctor' when at the University;</li> <li>• cite the official award abbreviation as a post nominal. The official abbreviation, (eg. HonDEd) can be recorded on a Curriculum Vitae and, for example, as an entry in the Australian edition of "Who's Who".</li> <li>• membership of Convocation; and</li> <li>• the right to wear the Academic Dress, gifted by the University and approved for that Honorary Award, on ceremonial occasions.</li> </ul>
Link to forms	See Awards &amp; Cermonies Committee page under 'Ceremonial Matters'			